

SASHA SANJAR BIO

Born and raised in Palos Verdes, Sasha Sanjar has proudly watched her hometown and the South Bay grow over the years. After graduating from the University of California, Irvine, Sasha moved to Los Angeles for a few years but always knew she would ultimately return to the hill.

Throughout her careers and past experience in public relations, marketing and management in the Fashion and Music industries, Sasha has dedicated herself to providing exceptional service to her clients. From inception to execution of any deal, Sasha prides herself in her extensive experience in personal service, her determination to find the best opportunities for her clients and her ability to ensure clients are provided with the best resources and service every step of the way.

If she isn't busy working on a deal for a client, you can most likely find Sasha spending time at her family's businesses, the Yellow Vase and Avenue Italy, enjoying long walks with her husband Kian and dogs Bear and Alma along the South Bay's beautiful beaches, taking a Pilates class or traveling and exploring new cities with her family and friends.
