

LYNN AGLIPAY

Candidate for PVPAR -
2024 Director

Lynn Nakasato-Aglipay is a dynamic force in the real estate industry, renowned for her unwavering commitment and outstanding achievements. With over a decade of experience, Lynn has established herself as a respected professional within the prestigious COMPASS brokerage. Her dedication to excellence is exemplified by her longstanding membership with the Palos Verdes Peninsula Association of REALTORS® (PVPAR), where she consistently upholds the highest standards.

Lynn's influential journey began in 2010 when she joined PVPAR's Young Professional Network (YPN). Since then, she has actively contributed to numerous committees, leaving an indelible mark on areas such as Installation, MLS, Budget and Finance, Professional Standards, Strategic Planning, YPN, Membership, Public Relations, and Grievance. Notably, as the chairperson of the Fundraising/Scholarship Committee, Lynn has consistently surpassed fundraising goals, awarding numerous scholarships to deserving Palos Verdes high school seniors.

Recognized for her exceptional leadership, Lynn has served as a Director for PVPAR and recently held the esteemed position of 2022 PVPAR President. Her influence extends beyond the local level, with active engagement in the California Association of REALTORS® (CAR). Lynn's selection as one of twenty-two Directors at Large for CAR and her appointment as the 2024 Regional Chair-Elect for Region 21 further solidify her status as a trusted and influential industry professional.

Beyond her professional achievements, Lynn's passion for empowering others shines through her mentorship within PVPAR's YPN program. She invests her time and expertise in cultivating emerging leaders who will shape the future of the association. Lynn's unwavering commitment to integrity sets her apart as a true industry leader.

Deeply committed to giving back, Lynn is a founding member and former Director of the Asian Real Estate Association of America (AREAA) LA Coastal Chapter. Her involvement in charitable initiatives, such as providing meals for the Toberman House and coordinating the annual Christmas w/Santa Breakfast for underprivileged children and families, demonstrates her dedication to making a positive impact in her community.

Born and raised in the South Bay, Lynn Nakasato-Aglipay brings an innovative and fresh perspective to her work. Lynn's daughters have received an excellent education through Palos Verdes schools, a testament to her commitment to their success. When she's not pursuing professional endeavors, Lynn treasures precious moments with her daughters, enjoys the company of her beloved dog Ollie, and remains actively involved in meaningful fundraising projects.
