

In 1995 Yvette moved to Los Angeles, CA where she began her professional real estate career. After obtaining her Real Estate Salesperson license in 1996, she joined the real estate firm of Coldwell Banker in West Hollywood, CA. After successfully building a client base and obtaining her Real Estate Brokers license in 2002, Yvette was offered a position as a Branch Manager at Prudential CA Realty in Carson and San Pedro, CA.

As Branch Manager, Yvette developed her sales management, recruiting and leadership skills that aided her in building one of the largest real estate offices in the Los Angeles South Bay. After the offices blossomed into a profitable position, Yvette negotiated and became a Managing Joint Venture Owner of both offices.

In 2006, Yvette achieved a long-awaited goal, she opened her own Real Estate Brokerage, Callum Page Realty Group.

In 2022, Yvette joined Coldwell Banker Palos Verdes Estates as a Broker Associate.

Yvette currently holds memberships in the National Association of Realtors, California Association of Realtors and Palos Verdes Peninsula Association of Realtors. Her professional Real Estate Designations include CRB (Council Real Estate Brokerages Managers), GRI (Graduate Realtor Institute), QSC (Quality Service Certified), and SRES (Seniors Real Estate Specialist). Yvette currently serves on the Palos Verdes Association of Realtors Professional Standard and Education Committees.

Yvette previously served on the Beverly Hills Association of Realtors Professional Standards Committee, and she was an Executive Board Member of the Bresse Foundation and National Speakers Association Beverly Hills Chapter. In addition, Yvette was nominated as Women Making A Difference “CEO of the Year” 2010 and “Rising Star” 2007 by the Los Angeles Business Journal. To add, Yvette was a contributing Writer for the Los Angeles Sentinel Real Estate column and was featured in an article entitled Talent Search and Recruitment Strategies published by The California Real Estate Magazine dated August 2007.
